

UNIVERSITY CITY Dining

BIBA 1

WINE BAR

The Left Bank, 3131 Walnut Street
215-222-2422, bibawinebar.com

From the folks who brought us the popular Tria, Biba Wine Bar is a new place to hang out with friends over a glass of wine and a snack. Biba offers 26 wines by the glass, 12 sexy artisanal cheeses, 10 beer geek-worthy beers, and wine-friendly snacks.

JG Domestic

Cira Centre, Ground Floor, 2929 Arch Street
215-222-2363, jgdomestic.com

"... my plan is to have it become a true dining destination—the kind of place that people go out of their way to visit and enjoy."

—Iron Chef Jose Garces on his latest restaurant, JG Domestic, serving artisanal American food and drink

PHILADELPHIA
citypaper

Baby Blues BBQ

3402 Sansom Street, 215-222-4444, babybluesphilly.com

Owner Stephen Fischer describes "Baby Blues' style as a hybrid of multiple American barbecue traditions, as they offer Memphis-style long bone pork ribs, dry-rubbed babybacks, and Texas beef ribs as well as Carolina-style pulled pork, beer-braised beef brisket and a bunch of seafood." —Philadelphia City Paper

The Restaurant School at Walnut Hill College 4207 Walnut Street 215-222-4200, therestaurantschool.com

The Restaurant School at Walnut Hill College provides four exquisite and thematic on-campus restaurants open to the public—The Great Chefs, The International Bistro, The American Heartland, and The Italian Trattoria. In addition, The Pastry Shop is a popular place for delicious and affordable cakes and sweets. All items are prepared by students in the Pastry Arts and Culinary Arts programs supervised by Chef Instructors.

3925 Walnut Street
215-387-0378

bobbysburgerpalace.com

Bobby's Burger Palace (BBP) presents 10 signature burgers inspired by Chef Bobby Flay's extensive travels throughout America and love of the grill in a convenient casual setting. Each BBP burger is Bobby's tribute to America's regional flavors and traditions. French fries, beer battered onion rings along with griddled cheese sandwiches, milkshakes and malteds, sodas, and alcoholic refreshments are available to create the ultimate BBP meal.

Pizza Rustica
3602 Chestnut Street
215-895-3490,
pizzarusticaonline.com

Pizza Rustica prides themselves on the authenticity of their acclaimed homemade Italian cuisine. Featuring a wood burning oven, their dough is made fresh daily at the restaurant. The menu will take you on a tour of Italy as you enjoy Panini, fresh salads, pizza, pasta, and homemade desserts.

3925 Walnut Street
215-662-0105, citytaphouse.com

Located on The Radian Balcony, just steps from the campuses of University of Pennsylvania and Drexel University, City Tap House boasts one of Philadelphia's most extensive draft beer lists—60 taps, including many rare and sought-after craft brews.

Featuring extensive outdoor seating on a terrace and a row of five stone fire pits overlooking the green roof, City Tap House combines new American pub fare with great beer in a comfortable, energized, eco-friendly atmosphere.

Dahlak Eritrean Bar & Restaurant
4708 Baltimore Avenue
215-726-6464

dahlakrestaurant.com

Enjoy fine Ethiopian and Eritrean foods and eating traditions at the popular Dahlak. Eat with your hands on their mesob, a traditional small round woven table designed for people to gather and share a communal meal. Dahlak offers a variety of excellent entrees featuring dishes made of beef, chicken and lamb, as well as vegetarian delights.

DINING IN UNIVERSITY CITY

A thriving nexus of international cuisine, University City is one of the most adventurous dining destinations in Philadelphia. Here, you can experience the best in Thai, West African, Laotian, Mexican, Indian cuisines, and much more. From intimate BYOBs and posh nightspots to romantic sidewalk cafes and inexpensive eateries, the neighborhood's dining scene features a marvelous representation of ethnicities and experiences.

The restaurants featured on this card represent only a fraction of what University City offers. We hope you'll continue to explore University City and discover what makes this neighborhood unique.

university
city district®

3940 Chestnut Street
Philadelphia, PA 19104
215.243.0555
www.universitycity.org

